DR. GREEN'S 40th ANNIVERSARY

On the evening of Saturday, April 28, a reception was given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Green by the members of the First Presbyterian church. The occasion of this reception was the fortieth anniversary of the beginning of Dr. Green's pastorate in Danville. It was a great pleasure to both pastor and people to welcome so many of Dr. Green's friends from the other churches of the city and from the community.

As a further commemoration of an event so interesting and unusual as the rounding out of forty years of continuous service as pastor of one church, a union service was held in the First Church Sunday evening. The size of the congregation, as well as the words of the pastors, gave evidence that Dr. Green has won a unique place in the esteem and affection of the people of this community. Just forty years before to the day Dr. Green had preached his first sermon as pastor of the First Church.

Each pastor brought greetings and congratulations from his people, and his own personal tribute as well. Dr. McDowell, as next in length of service to Dr. Green, made the principal address, speaking for the community as well as for his own church. It was a rare speech, full of noble utterances, and the intimate personal touches so fitting on such an occasion. The brief remarks of the other pastors were in the same spirit, and so graciously put as to be very grateful to both pastor and people of the First Church.

The Rev. J. A. Throble, as representative of the Presbytery of Transylvania, expressed in very fitting terms the congratulations of the Presbytery. Dr. Green has been a most faithful and influential member of the Presbytery, having missed only one of its regular meetings in forty years. For almost that long he has been the Presbytery's stated clerk.

Professor C. G. Crooks spoke a few words for the members of the First Church, expressing their appreciation of Dr. Green's faithful and fruitful ministrations and their personal love and devotion to him.

The occasion was a memorable one in many ways, and the congregation of the First Church greatly appreciate the tribute paid by both pastors and people of the other churches to their beloved pastor.

Dr. Green expressed his own deep appreciation of the hearty good will and affection shown him by both speakers and audience.

The benediction by Dr. Green brought to a close the exercises of service of delightful Christian fellowship.—Danville Advocate.

THE CHAUTAUQUA MAY 27-31

The ladies of the Women's Club are leasing no time in disposing of season tickets for the Lincoln Chautauqua, which will stretch its big tent in Stanford May 27-31, inclusive. Under this big tent twice daily entertainers of fame will make it interesting to all, for the Lincoln Chautauqua brings to Stanford, people who have given their lives to lighthouse work and are artists in their line.

The Chautauqua of last year was good, but the program to be given this year is superior. Higher priced performers have been engaged and many attractions have been added. The ladies are succeeding nicely in selling season tickets, but they have not supplied all of our people with them. If they have not called on you they will do so when they call, help along a good thing by buying a ticket or two.

Season tickets cost $2 and there will be five full days of entertainment. Looks like a bargain to us, and you will think it is if you will attend.

WORMS EAT GREEN THINGS

A successful Lincoln county farmer and gardener told the I. J. this morning that it was not good gardening to clean the garden too close of green things. The cut worms have got to eat something, and if they can't get grass and roots to live on, they will eat seed and sprouts to the detriment of the crops.

Liquor tax schedules of the War Revenue Bill approved Thursday by the House Ways and Means Committee placed a tax of $2 a gallon on whisky and $2 a barrel on beer.

FROM SON TO FATHER

The following letter was received by Col. C. R. Coleman, of this city, from his son, Harris Coleman, who is a student at the University of Virginia. The letter is clipped from the Courier-Journal:

My Dear Father: Excuse this paper as it is all I have. I am sorry that you and mother are so stirred up, but I am also myself. You misunderstand Thomas' letter entirely.

I want to try to show you how I feel. In the first place, if there is going to be any conflict on the part of this country, i. e., any tests at arms, well I am going to be there. I know full well how you feel about it, and if I had a son I am sure I would feel the same way. But there is my point. Regardless of how we got into this fight, that is immaterial, the fact alone remains that we are in it, and as a citizen who lives and cherishes the glory and honor and liberty handed down to us by our forefathers I can do nothing else than do what I can to carry on these things which they fought and died for, and come down to the last analysis we are in a way fighting for our liberty, for sure as fate the "mailed fist" has us in line for the next victim when she would have conquered Europe. So I can't see that it is a question of personal convenience and safety. It is far above that.

Secondly, as an enlightened youth who owes it to his education to set the example to those not so fortunate as he is, if he does not set such an example where in the world is it coming from?

Lastly, something is due posterity. So when a person grows older and perhaps be so fortunate as to be the father of children and they doubtless would want to know if their parent had flinched when the trial came, and picture the disappointment when they should discover that he had failed in an hour of trial. I should think that a fellow had rather be dead. I will tell you if this thing amounts to anything and a fellow don't go he is going to be spending the rest of his life telling why he did not go.

So that's my situation now. What I am planning now is this: I think I will take the regular army examinations for a first lieutenant. Situated as I am, with a college degree, I can pass the examinations all right. I think I have thought it out and think that is the best thing to do. The examinations are in July some time and I will be able to see you and talk it over with you before then, and by that time I can tell what is going to happen, for if there is going to be peace it will be before July 15, and if not then there is not telling the duration of the war.

Now please don't write and discourage things, for I feel bad enough already. Don't worry and keep you fully informed. Yours son, HARRIS.

Wm. W. G. Gooch had a fine mule killed in a runaway on his farm in the Goshen section Tuesday. One of his sons and three hybrids working on a cutting harrow, when the animals became frightened and got away from him. They ran quite a distance and later got tangled up with the harrow, when one of them was so badly hurt that it died. Fortunately for young Mr. Gooch he was not hurt in the mix-up.

IN BRITISH ARMY TRENCHES

Stanford has one citizen, if not more, fighting in the trenches across the pond. Percy Stewart, son of Harve Stewart, of this place, left about the first of the year and his whereabouts were unknown until a few days ago when his mother received a check from the British for a month's salary for her son, who is in the standing army of that country.

AGED WOMAN CROSSES OVER

At 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, surrounded by family and friends, the spirit of Mrs. James W. Guest, of Crab Orchard, took its flight to mansions above. Her death occurred at Crab Orchard Springs, where Col. and Mrs. Guest had made their home for some time, and was caused by a complication of troubles from which she had been a sufferer for weeks. She is survived by her husband, Col. James W. Guest, four children, Messdames Judith Vass, of Mobile, Ala., and B. G. Boyle, of Chicago, and William P. Guest, of Covington, and Dr. James W. Guest, of New York City, all of whom were present when the end came. Mrs. Guest also leaves three sisters: Messdames Alice Dobbins, of Altoona, Fla., Mary Hoskins, of Louisville, and one brother, Mr. D. K. Farris, of Crab Orchard. She was born 79 years ago and was a daughter of Henry and Jane Farris, long since gone to their reward. They were prominent people of the East End of the county and their bodies rest at Crab Orchard. For years Mrs. Guest had been a member of the Crab Orchard Christian church and was a most excellent woman in every way. Her death occasions great sorrow in her home town and wherever the splendid wife and mother was known. The sympathy of friends here and elsewhere go out to the family in the fearful loss they have sustained.

Brief funeral services were conducted at Crab Orchard Springs by Mr. J. C. McClary, of this city, at 12:30 today and at 3 o'clock this afternoon all that is mortal of the good woman will be laid to rest in Bellevue Cemetery, Danville.

HOP STANDS CLOSED UP

W. A. Harney and Matt Martin, proprietors of the soft drink houses on Depot street, were tried before a jury in Judge R. L. Davison's court Tuesday afternoon on the charge of selling an intoxicating decoction to a young man named Alford from the Southern End of the county. The man claimed that he had taken nothing stronger than the hops or near-beer sold at those places, but admitted that it had made him drunk, and Judge Davison and others had seen him in a drunken condition. The jury hung, standing four to two for conviction. The four were for giving the soft drink men the limit—$100—but the other two were willing to meet them with a small fine. No compromise could be effected, however, and the jury was discharged. Both Messrs. Harney and Martin expressed a surprise at their drinks causing drunkenness and made a proposition to City Attorney that they would quit selling hops, or whatever the drink is, if the cases were dropped and the money they had paid for license were refunded to them. This was agreed to and Mr. Martin shut up shop at once and Mr. Harney stopped the sale forthwith. The latter's place will remain open as a pool room and eating house but no more of the near-beer stuff will be permitted to go over the counter. This clears Stanford of such places and it is hoped that officers will have a better opportunity to apprehend the bootleggers and others who deal in the fluid that the people have said in thinking tones that they do not want sold in Lincoln county. Martin's license was almost out and Harney's expires about August 1.

CHIEF K. C. SMITH DEAD

Chief Smith, for 40 years a member of Harrodsburg's police force and 30 years of the time its chief, died Monday night after a brief illness. He was a splendid and fearless officer and bore honorable scars received in the discharge of his duty, one of which was the loss of an eye. "Kny," as his legion of friends called him, was a fine old gentleman and he will be missed probably more than any other citizen of Harrodsburg would be. The little city is indeed loser by his taking away.

STEAL MR. TRAYLOR'S CORN

The corn crib of Mr. A. T. Traylor, out on Dix river, was broken into Thursday night and a barrel or so of corn stolen. Mr. Traylor phoned for Lair's bloodhounds and the Hustonville man had them on the scene in a hurry. The dogs made a good trail to the river, but lost it there, and the supposition is that the scamps had a boat there in waiting for them. Mr. Traylor is a very determined man and he may take further steps to locate the thieves.

PENCE FARM BRINGS $20,111.00

The First National Auction Co., of Smithfield, N. C., conducted a very successful sale when it disposed of the E. T. Pence, Sr., farm on the Cut-off pike Wednesday. The place contains 150 acres and it brought $20,111.00, which is over $2,000 more than it sold for less than six months ago, when J. H. Wright turned it over to Frank Martin. Messrs. R. J. Sandlin and B. P. Sandlin and F. L. Jerome personally conducted the sale for their company and are more than pleased with the results. They are fine gentlemen to do business with and in street parlance are as "straight as a string." Assisting them on the sale day were O. T. Wallace, of Wilmington, N. C., but formerly of Lancaster, and John A. Wagon, of Americus, Ga. Col. W. H. Matthews, of Greensboro, N. C., "cried" the sale and did it splendidly. He is not only a good auctioneer, but an excellent entertainer. He gave away some $10 during the morning, a portion of it going to Miss Sue Taylor Engleman, who was voted the prettiest young lady on the grounds.

The home place containing 70 73-100 acres, on which is the handsome brick residence, was bought by J. Crit Eubanks at $165.50 per acre. J. H. Browning bought the 33 acres across the pike, on which there is a good barn, but no dwelling, at $152.50, and Frank Martin got the remainder of the farm—47 acres of upland on the same side of Cut-off pike. The residence is at $72.50.

The Danville Military Band furnished sweet music for the occasion and a substantial lunch was served at the conclusion of the sale.

PROF. CANEER ELECTED SUPT.

The trustees of the Stanford High and Graded School, at their meeting Wednesday night, elected Prof. M. L. Caneer, superintendent for the next scholastic year to succeed Prof. W. C. Wilson, who did not stand for reelection. Prof. Caneer, who is now teaching in the high school at Richmond, was superintendent of the Lancaster High and Graded School several years ago. He is a highly recommended both as a teacher and a gentleman and will be welcomed to Stanford. It is a source of great regret, however, that Prof. Wilson will not be with the school again. His work has been of a high order and he has made a legion of friends during his sojourn here. Wherever he and Mrs. Wilson locate their good wishes will be with them. Miss Ellen Ballou, who has had charge of the instrumental music department of the school for a long time, was elected again, to the delight of everybody, and Miss Elizabeth Higgins, who has taken care of the vocal end, will serve in that capacity again, patrons of the school and her many friends will be glad to know. The First National Bank was elected treasurer of the school, paying $125 for the privilege. The Lincoln County National Bank's bid was $105.

TO CONTRACTORS

The Hustonville Graded Common School District will erect at Hustonville a two-story brick school building and wants bids on it from reliable contractors. Specifications and blue prints of it can be had from the secretary of the board of trustees, John B. Riffe, at Hustonville, Ky. All bids must be in the secretary's hands by Saturday, May 19, 1917. The trustees reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

A message was received here last night from Canton, Ohio, by Mrs. Belle Perkins, that her son, Walter Perkins, who is connected with some electrical house at that place, had met with a very serious accident and was in an alarming condition. COLLECTING MONEY FOR OIL

The ladies of the Women's Club are succeeding splendidly in collecting money with which to pay a part on the oil that will be put on the streets, but they still need a little more of the filthy lucre. At a meeting last night good collections were reported and steps were taken for a more thorough canvass of the city for money.

Go to Sunday School Sunday.
It looks like Crab Orchard is to have a chautauqua this year. At least the signs are pointing that way.

Mr. and Mrs. Elam have moved over to Garrard county to live with their children.

The Baptist Ladies Aid realized about fifteen dollars at their bazaar Saturday. The day was such a bad one that these figures are good.

Mr. Levi Elder purchased the Edmiston home and store room and will probably move into it this fall.

Mrs. James Manuel is getting along fine and considers Dr. Carpenter one of the finest surgeons to be found and many others think the same thing of this able physician.

Miss Bettie Mudd, who withdrew her application for teacher here next year, has been offered better inducements elsewhere. Many patrons of the school deeply regret that she will not be here again, as the children made rapid advancement under her care and she will carry the best wishes of many here.

Mr. Herbert Deswick, of Lebanon, visited Miss Mayme Holman Sunday. Misses Ruth McCollum and Ruth Andrews, of Junction City, are visiting Mrs. Wallace Gover.

Mrs. W. G. Welch, of Stanford, was here Tuesday to see Mrs. James W. Guest.

Mrs. A. H. Bastin and daughter, of Lancaster, visited Mrs. Emma Farris and Mrs. Bettie Buchanan last Thursday.

Two sweet little girl babies have come to reside in our town. One will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Skiles, the other will stay with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Butt. Both young ladies received a royal welcome, and the high cost of living was forgotten.

Mr. Will Pettus purchased the pony and cart of Miss Minnie Woods, of Stanford for Sarah May and Billy and they are enjoying it to the fullest.

Mrs. James Manuel is getting along nicely after the operation she lately underwent and we hope she will soon be up again.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

Champ Clark has a son-in-law named Thompson, who is the editor of a New Orleans paper, who has undertaken a pretty big job—that of defending Champ's speech and action on the selective draft bill, proposed by President Wilson, and of holding to a personal responsibility all who dare to criticize the Speaker's indefensible position in this most critical time, when the country should by all means show a united front to German aggression. He denounces former Ambassador Gerard, who was sent home from Germany, as a liar and tears his hair because he said in a speech before the Associated Press gathering in New York that he was sorry he contributed to the expenses of the Speaker, when he aspired to be President, and thanked Providence for intervening to save the country from putting forward its near Statesman. If Brer Thompson proposes to whip every one who now regrets that he supported Mr. Clark for President in the convention that nominated Woodrow Wilson, he has bitten off more than he can masticate, and it would be the wise thing for his daddy-in-law to suggest that he go away back and sit down before somebody deprives him of this fire-eating son-in-law.

Col. W. P. Walton has been appointed by Gov. Stanley Chairman of the Publicity Department of the State Tuberculosis Association and on Wednesday he went to work at Frankfort. Col. Walton will be able to do a portion of his work at his home at Lexington, but will have an office at Frankfort. He will represent the association at all of the important gatherings and next week will be the delegate from Kentucky to the National Tuberculosis Association, which will hold a meeting in Cincinnati. His friends here and elsewhere are glad that his services to party and State have at last been recognized and feel to congratulate the commission on securing Col. Walton for the position of Publicity Chairman, knowing full well that he will dedicate his talent and energy to the cause he will represent.

Statistics gathered by the board of health show that there were some 5,000 deaths from tuberculosis in Kentucky during 1916, 31 of which are credited to Lincoln county. As tuberculosis is a recognized preventable disease and a curable one under the proper treatment, it is a shame that every thing is not done to stay the march of this most terrible of man's enemies. The Tuberculosis Commission, with headquarters at Frankfort, under the direction of Dr. W. L. Heizer, is doing a great work in educating the people to the importance of observing rules and precautions that will prevent the disease and cure it after it is developed. Lend them all the assistance in your power.

"Go-to-Sunday-School-Sunday" is the slogan just now and it may be taken with profit as an admonition. Be sure to go. It will be an hour well spent and you will help swell the sum total to a record-breaking number. And the best part of it is, you might get the habit and keep on going every Sunday. Any way give it a trial and be at Sunday school by 9:30 or 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Don't let anything hinder you from going and see if you can't get somebody to go with you.

5,000,000 Corns Lifted Right Off!

Try 2 Drops of Magic "Gets-It"
There's a wonderful difference between getting rid of a corn now and the way they used to try to get rid of it only four or five years ago. "Gets-It" has revolutionized corn history. It's the only corn remedy today that acts on the new principle, not only of shriveling up the corn, but of loosening the corn off—so loose that you can lift it right off with your fingers. Put 2 drops of "Gets-It" on that corn or callus tonight. That's all. The corn is doomed sure as sunrise. No pain, or trouble, or soreness. You do away once and for all with toe-bundling bandages, toe-eating salves and irresponsible what-nots. Try it—get surprised and lose a corn. "Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

"See? Just 2 Drops of 'Gets-It' Now Tomorrow You'll Just Feel That Corn Right Off—and It's Gone!"

Sold in Stanford and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by The Lincoln Pharmacy and The Penny Drug Store.

VALLEY STATION—George Ray, farmer: "For more than a year I was troubled with my stomach. I would wake at night with cramps. After these bottles of Tanlac my stomach never bothers me. Tanlac is surely a great tonic."

STEPHENSBURG—Ella Young, merchant: "My system had become so run-down I had trouble getting a good night's sleep. With my first bottle of Tanlac I began to feel stronger, and I now sleep better than in years."

KILGORE—Joe W. Cotton, farmer: "I am in my seventy-ninth year and naturally am subject to ailments, particularly stomach. Since beginning Tanlac I have felt so much stronger that I will continue using it until my stomach feels entirely well."

The Tri-State Butter Co., Cincinnati,

SAYS MRS. CHRIS SCHNITZLER.

It won't be a year until the 6th of June since we went into the cream business. We only milk six cows and have sold $288 worth of cream. I would not go back to the old time churn as long as I can sell cream to the TRI-STATE BUTTER COMPANY. I just love to send out cream to the TRI-STATE, and it saves the hard labor on a woman of working butter in the summer.
